47.305 Solicitation provisions, contract clauses, and transportation factors.

(a) The contracting officer shall coordinate transportation factors with the transportation office during the planning, solicitation, and award phases of the acquisition process (see 47.105).

(b) To the extent feasible, activities shall schedule deliveries to effect savings in transportation costs, and concomitant reductions in energy consumption by carriers (see 47.305-7 and 47.305-8 for specific possibilities).

- 47.305-1 Solicitation requirements.
- 47.305-2 Solicitations f.o.b. origin and f.o.b. destination-lowest overall cost.
- 47.305-3 F.o.b. origin solicitations.
- 47.305-4 F.o.b. destination solicitations.
- 47.305-5 Destination unknown.
- 47.305-6 Shipments to ports and air terminals.
- 47.305-7 Quantity analysis, direct delivery, and reduction of crosshauling and backhauling.
- 47.305-8 Consolidation of small shipments and the use of stopoff privileges.
- 47.305-9 Commodity description and freight classification.
- 47.305-10 Packing, marking, and consignment instructions.
- 47.305-11 Options in shipment and delivery.
- 47.305-12 Delivery of Government-furnished property.
- 47.305-13 Transit arrangements.
- 47.305-14 Mode of transportation.
- 47.305-15 Loading responsibilities of contractors.
- 47.305-16 Shipping characteristics.
- 47.305-17 Returnable cylinders.

Parent topic: Subpart 47.3 - Transportation in Supply Contracts