1552.217-75 Option to extend the effective period of the contract - time and materials or labor hour contract.

As prescribed in 1517.208(f), insert this clause in time and materials or labor hour type contracts when applicable. This clause will be modified to reflect the actual number of option periods for the acquisition. If only one option period is used, modify (c) accordingly.

dequisition. If only one option period is t	used, modify (c) decordingly.
Option To Extend the Effective Period of (APR 1984)	f the Contract - Time and Mater	rials or Labor Hour Contract
(a) The Government has the option to experiod(s). If more than sixty (60) days rewithout prior written notification, may experience unilaterally exercise this option within this issue written notification of its intent to preliminary notification does not commit	emain in the contract effective pexercise this option by issuing a he last 60 days of the effective exercise the option prior to that	period, the Government, contract modification. To period, the Government must at last 60-day period. This
(b) If the option(s) are exercised, the "Coseparate ceiling price of $ for th $ for the second option period.
(c) The "Effective Period of the Contract	t" clause will be modified to cov	ver a base period from to	and option periods from	to
and	to (End of clause)
(Liid oi oiduso)

Parent topic: Subpart 1552.2 - Texts of Provisions and Clauses